The 2020 Renault Sandero 66kW Turbo Stepway Techroad is a stylish crossover that blends practicality, efficiency, and modern design. Powered by a responsive 0.9L turbocharged engine delivering 66kW, it offers impressive fuel economy without compromising on performance. The Stepway Techroad edition enhances the Sandero's rugged appeal with raised ground clearance, roof rails, and bold SUV-inspired styling, making it perfect for both city driving and weekend adventures. Inside, the cabin is spacious and versatile, featuring premium Techroad upholstery, a user-friendly infotainment system with Bluetooth and navigation, and ample boot space for everyday needs. Safety is prioritized with ABS, airbags, and stability control, ensuring peace of mind on every journey. Combining affordability, comfort, and reliability, the Sandero Stepway Techroad is an excellent choice for drivers seeking a dynamic yet economical vehicle with a touch of adventure.
